GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Contract

This Contract is an annuity contract under which the Company agrees in consideration for the payments received and in accordance with the terms and conditions provided in this Contract to pay to you, your Beneficiary or heirs:

- 1) a Benefit in the form of an annuity; or
- 2) a Benefit in the case of death.

The Application, Definitions, General Provisions, and any Endorsements that may be attached constitute our Contract with you.

The Company has the right to enforce the terms and conditions of this Contract or not at its discretion without giving up any of its rights of enforcement in the future.

Section headings appearing in this Contract are for convenience of reference only and are not to be considered as an aid to interpretation.

For certain transactions, the Company may require proof of age of the Annuitant and reserves the right to impose additional requirements at its discretion.

In the event of changes occurring in applicable legislation or regulation, this Contract shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to comply with such change in the applicable jurisdiction.

2. Amendments

No provisions of this Contract may be canceled or amended except by an Endorsement duly signed by an authorized officer of the Company.

3. Payments

To the Company

All payments made to the Company shall be in Canadian currency. The Company reserves the right to refuse any payments or to impose additional requirements at its discretion.

Deposits are made into the Daily Interest Fund. Currently, the Company accepts a minimum Deposit of $25,000.00. Pre-authorized chequing plans are not accepted. The minimum amount is determined by the Company and subject to change at the Company's discretion.

To the Owner

All payments made to the Owner shall be in Canadian currency. The Company reserves the right to defer the payment of any Surrender in accordance with its administrative practices.

4. Owner's rights

Subject to the section titled "Transfer of Ownership and Assignment for Collateral", the Owner is entitled to assign or transfer the ownership of this Contract. In addition, the Owner may choose to surrender all or part of the Deposits credited to the Daily Interest Fund, subject to any limitations and charges specified in the section titled "Investment Options".

An Owner subject to the jurisdiction of the province of Quebec may choose to surrender all or a part of this Contract or transfer the proceeds of this Contract to another contract either with the Company or another financial institution without obtaining the consent of the irrevocable Beneficiary.

5. Beneficiary changes

Subject to legal restrictions, the Owner may substitute one Beneficiary for another by providing written notice to the Company. The Company assumes no responsibility with respect to the validity of a Beneficiary change.

6. Transfer of Ownership and Assignment for Collateral

The Company must be advised in writing of any transfer of ownership or assignment of the Contract as collateral for loans and has the right to refuse any of these requests at its absolute discretion. The Company assumes no responsibility with respect to the propriety, validity or legality of such a transfer or assignment.

7. Surrender of Investment Options

The Owner has the right to surrender the total or partial value of the Contract subject to the provisions of the section titled "Investment Options", which describes how the value of the surrender will be determined and what charges will be applied. Such surrender request must be made in writing and comply with the Company's current administrative practices. Currently, the Company requires that the request be clear and unambiguous and be received by the Company before such request is processed.

A partial surrender will reduce the Death Benefit, which is described in the section titled "Guaranteed Benefits". A total surrender of the Daily Interest Fund terminates the Contract.

8. Guaranteed Benefits

Death Benefit

On the Annuitant's death, the Company will pay the Beneficiary (unless the Beneficiary is the spouse or common-law partner of the Annuitant and becomes the Annuitant under the Contract) an amount equal to the Accumulated Value of the Daily Interest Fund.

9. Non-guaranteed benefits

Other than the guarantees offered at Death, the value of Deposits made to this Contract will vary and the Surrender Value is not guaranteed.

10. Annuity option

The Company will pay the Owner an annuity starting on the date set by the Owner. The Company will determine the annuity amount based on the Surrender Value of each Deposit in the Daily Interest Fund and the single premium annuity rates it offers at that time. If the annuity payment is lower than the Company's required minimum for the frequency requested by the Owner, the Company has the right to change the frequency of the payment.

After the Annuitant attains the age of 105 years, the Contract will be used automatically to provide an annuity as described above.

In addition to the annuity described above, the Owner may at any time after the Annuitant has reached the age of 65 years, elect to obtain a life annuity providing annual payments per $1000 of the Surrender Value at the time the surrender request is received by the Company, using the formula:

Male 1,000	Female 1,000
$\frac{1,000}{60 - (A \times 0.5)}$	$\frac{1,000}{60 - \{(A - 5) \times 0.5\}}$

where, A is the age of the Annuitant. In both cases, the age will be determined on the date that the request is received from the Owner.

11. Taxation of the Contract

Contracts not registered under Section 146 of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and corresponding provincial legislation are subject to tax as per Section 12.2 of the Income Tax Act (Canada) unless the Company has evidence that these Contracts are held in a plan registered by a third party.

12. Loans and Non-Forfeiture Options

There are no loan or non-forfeiture options available under this Contract.

13. Rescission Rights

Subject to any applicable regulatory requirements, there are no rescission rights available under this Contract.

14. Charges and fees

The Company reserves the right to set and collect administrative fees for services provided under this Contract. In terms of administering laws and regulations governing unclaimed property, the Company may collect fees of up to $1,500 to cover certain costs. These costs can include, among other costs, administrative fees incurred for undeliverable mail if the Company has to search for you, the Owner, and update your file, as well as the fees paid to an investigator to perform the search. Also included are the costs incurred to close your Contract if the case is sent to Revenu Québec or any other provincial or territorial organization governing unclaimed property.

15. Assignment of Obligations by the Company

Subject to receipt of all applicable regulatory approvals, we may transfer and assign all of our obligations under this Contract to another life insurance company which carries on the business of life insurance in Canada and, provided such life insurance company agrees to assume all of our obligations under and be bound to the terms and conditions of this Contract, we shall be released and discharged from all obligations under this Contract to you, to your Beneficiaries, or to any Annuitant.

16. Closing of Investment Options

The Company reserves the right, at its absolute discretion, to close the Daily Interest Fund or any of the investment options (including any new option which may be added in the future).

The Company specifically reserves the right, at its absolute discretion, to cease acceptance of additional Deposits into any investment option, whether such refusal is reasonable or not.

Investment option

The following investment option is currently available under this Contract. The Company reserves the right, at its absolute discretion, to offer new options or close existing options.

Daily Interest Fund

The Company will calculate interest on the minimum daily balance at the rate in effect on that day as determined by the Company. Accrued interest is credited to the Contract at least semi-annually.

The Surrender Value of the Daily Interest Fund is equal to the Accumulated Value of all the Deposits in the Fund on the surrender date.
